Enhancing Our Client's Readiness and Resilience

Hagerty Consulting is a full-service emergency management and grants management firm with a proven record of helping state and local governments navigate disasters, strengthen resilience, and maximize federal funding. With extensive experience across Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD), Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), and other federal programs, we help communities advance recovery and community development priorities while building the capacity needed to deliver lasting, locally driven outcomes.

Navigating Federal Changes and Maximizing Disaster Funding

Hagerty helps clients prepare for the future of emergency management by interpreting federal policy shifts and assessing their impact on state and local operations. We also deliver comprehensive funding and grants management services, including FEMA's Public Assistance (PA) and Hazard Mitigation Grant Programs (HMGP) as well as HUD Community Development Block Grant–Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR).

Facilitating Grants Management

Beyond FEMA programs, Hagerty helps clients access and manage a wide range of federal funding to drive resilience and economic development. We support strategic planning, align funding with local priorities, and provide full grant lifecycle management—from application development through compliance and reporting—to ensure efficient, effective use of resources.

Expediting Disaster Response and Recovery

Amid disaster, Hagerty professionals integrate with our clients to streamline federal funding, enhance coordination, and deploy surge staffing for disaster response. Through standby contracts, we provide rapid-response expertise, ensuring clients have immediate access to experienced personnel to accelerate response and recovery operations when disasters strike.

Building Resilience

We help organizations plan for emergencies, train staff through realistic exercises, and maintain operations during disruptions. Hagerty's support includes emergency and recovery planning, customized training, and business continuity strategies tailored to meet clients' unique needs.

Our Firm

For over two decades, we have helped clients navigate complex disasters and secure more than $95 billion in federal funding, including more than $8 billion in CDBG-DR funding nationwide.

Our expertise enables our clients to access, manage, and maximize federal, state, and other resources to support lasting recovery and resilience.

Our Team

Our team, which includes former government officials with extensive expertise, supports clients in enhancing resilience and improving long-term outcomes for their communities.

We also partner with local vendors and businesses whenever possible. By doing so, we tap into their expertise and can also help our clients' economies grow.

Simply, we are committed to ensuring that our clients secure every dollar they can from the federal government to better serve those impacted by disasters and strengthen infrastructure for the future.
